

Overview

The ideal candidate will have demonstrated success working in DoD and foreign military as well as U.S. and foreign Civil ecosystems as a business development and sales professional, with strong interpersonal skills, a retained network of decisionmaker relationships and a demonstrated working knowledge of fixed-wing and rotary aircraft propulsion systems application principles.

Basic Function:

Perform Maintenance Manual level repairs, and/or Overhaul of RR T56/501 and P&W PT6 engines in accordance with approved data and published work scopes. Prior experience in the maintenance, repair and/or overhaul of RR T56/501 and P&W PT6 engines required.

Essential duties are as follows but are not limited to:

- Disassembly, inspection and assembly of RR T56/501 and P&W PT6 engines.
- Inspection of engine parts and related components.
- Understand configuration & fits requirements during build.
- Know and perform proper servicing procedures.
- Ensure all work is performed IAW posted work scopes.

Requirements:

- Powerplant certification desired.
- Must have experience as an aviation engine mechanic, with an emphasis on the overhaul and/or repair of engines.
- Willing and able to learn, with understanding of aviation procedures.
- Demonstrate proper use and knowledge of tools and measuring equipment.
- Knowledge of aviation engines and components.
- Must speak and write English and have toolbox.

A Plus

- Experience as a test cell operator.
- Experience in the repair and overhaul of Auxiliary Power Units (APUs).
- Experience in Field Service work on related engines or aircraft.

Basic Schedule:

7:00 am – 3:30 pm Monday – Friday, additional time as needed.

Interested, qualified candidates can submit their resumes for consideration to resumes@turbopowerllc.com and reference position title in the subject line.

Equal Opportunity Employer - Vet/Disability - Drug-Free Workplace