

POSITION SUMMARY & FUNCTIONS:

Responsible for the oversight of all aspects of our company's supply chain operations. The director will manage team members to ensure a timely supply of goods, efficient processing of orders, and timely delivery of products while enhancing profitability and customer satisfaction.

ESSENTIAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Develop and execute supply chain plans and strategies to maximize efficiency and minimize costs.
- Active participation in identifying and selecting suppliers, negotiates supply contracts in close collaboration with other relevant company functions.
- Procurement planning and forecasting that are aligned with the operational targets.
- Monitors and evaluates Supply Chain Procurement compliance and performance throughout the organization; monitors all purchases for compliance and establishes best practices.
- Implements and maintains inventory strategy and management in order to achieve company financial goals.
- Collaborate with cross-functional teams to drive innovative approaches to the supply chain process.
- Develop, maintain, and continuously improve procedures, processes and analytics that are aligned with internal requirements and include contractual obligations for suppliers and third-party logistics providers.
- Promote an environment of high employee engagement and professional development, train, coach, and mentor team members.
- Additional duties and responsibilities as assigned.

EDUCATION AND EXPERIENCE:

- Minimum 5 years of experience in supply chain management in a leadership role in the Maintenance, Repair, and Overhaul (MRO) Aerospace environment is required and a bachelor's degree in business administration, Supply Chain Management, or a related field or equivalent combination of education and experience.
- Experience utilizing a variety of software and technologies to drive supply chain optimization. Preference will be given to ERP experience with Quantum.
- Ability to comprehend complex and dynamic situations and build solutions that build transparency and enables future growth.
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills
- Strong management skills, including the ability to motivate and guide team members towards achieving common goals.
- Demonstrated experience in cross-functional teams, presenting and influencing senior business leaders.
- Working knowledge of Microsoft Office such as Outlook, Excel & Word required.

KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, AND ABILITIES:

- Solve problems with minimal supervision and input
- Gas turbine engine operation and technical acumen
- Effectively use all available systems to manage assigned accounts (workflow management, quoting, account reporting, etc.)

- Understanding of financial reporting and metrics

PROFESSIONAL ATTRIBUTES:

- Proven record of delivering results on time, on budget, and to the highest standards
- Demonstrated initiative, drive, and resilience; action and results-oriented
- Ability to build strong relationships with people at all levels
- Self-confident, self-motivated & willing to assume a leadership role
- Demonstrated ability to make effective and sound decisions
- Sense of urgency is evident in all aspects of work
- Meticulous attention to detail
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills
- Ability to work independently and exercise judgment
- Team player who is comfortable working with other professionals
- Works efficiently under pressure and to tight deadlines
- Problem solves in demanding situations
- Willingness and demonstrated ability to see things through to the end

PHYSICAL/WORKING ENVIRONMENT:

- The primary work environment is a standard office and MRO shop setting.

TRAVEL:

- Travel will be minimal but may be required from time to time and will be performed in accordance with Turbopower's travel policies.

Interested, qualified candidates can submit their resumes for consideration to resumes@turbopowerllc.com and reference position title in the subject line.

Equal Opportunity Employer - Vet/Disability - Drug-Free Workplace